VOL. CXXXII— No. 250. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1916. PRICE 2 CENTS

COUNCIL LAST NIGHT

Small Volume of Business Before City Fathers at Regular Semi-Monthly Meeting.

There was a brief session of the City Council last night, and the volume of business presented was small. There was no joint session, however, to consider the advisability of installing a fire alarm system, as had been presaged.

Board of Aldermen

Before the Aldermen had considered any paper before the body, Mr. Pohl, from the lower board, appeared in the chamber and announced that the members of the Common Council had finished their business and were ready to adjourn. He was requested to tell the members to tarry a short time.

Resolutions appropriating $10,000 for the use of the public schools and $1,150 for placing a concrete base on Russell Road through Rosemont, received from the Common Council at the last meeting, were adopted by unanimous votes.

Mr. Fitzgerald, of the Committee on light, presented a report on a petition of Mrs. L. E. Uhler, chairman of the finance committee of the Ann Lee Memorial Home, asking the city to furnish $150 worth of gas annually free to that institution. The report recommended that the city furnish $75 worth. The report was adopted.

The Aldermen concurred in the action of the Common Council upon all papers received.

The proceedings of the board were without discussion and at an early hour adjourned.

Common Council.

The session of the Common Council last night was short and only a small volume of business was disposed of.

Mr. Ballenger introduced a resolution asking that the Finance Committee devise ways and means for increasing the salaries of the members of the police and fire departments, superintendent of schools, city engineer and others. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

A resolution of Councilman Burke that the finance committee be authorized to employ legal counsel to represent the city before the state corporation commission on the question of adequate supply of water in the investigation pending against the Alexandria Water Company and appropriating the sum of $100 for same was adopted.

Contrary to expectations there was no joint session of council to take up the report of the citizens' committee recommending fire alarm system, etc.

Councilman Desmond explained that the committee did not have all the data it desired on cost of fire alarm system and stated it expected to have it by the next meeting of council when a report will be made.

A resolution was adopted that the collector of taxes offer for sale at public auction beginning at 10 o'clock December 19th, all property on which city taxes have not been paid to June 1916.

The street committee recommended that the pay of the city employes on construction work be raised from 17 to 20 cents an hour effective October 28. The employes some time ago petitioned council for an increase in wages.

Councilman Bryan told council he had been appealed to by many persons regarding the poor quality of gas being furnished. He said he had been assured that an investigation on the gas was being held and he desired to know if such was the case and was informed by Councilman Wattles that this was correct.

The other business transacted will be found in the official proceedings.

GRAND CHAPTER MEETS

J. E. Alexander, of this City, One of Nine Past Grand High Priests Present at Gathering

The Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons of Virginia, met last night in Richmond in the one hundred and ninth grand annual convocation. Most Excellent High Priest J. Summer Butt, of Portsmouth, presided, and W. Norvell Woodward of Richmond, acted as grand king. The only absent officer was E. Fennor Heath, of Newport News, who was detained from attending the opening session by business, but will arrive in Richmond today.

Featuring the meeting of the opening session was the address of the grand high priest, which was one of the ablest speeches ever heard before the grand chapter, showing the greatest progress in any given year in the history of capitular Masonry. Nine past grand high priests were present, this being the largest number ever attending one session of the grand chapter. They were; James E. Alexander, Alexandria; William J. Hubert, Lynchburg; William B. McChesney, Staunton; R. M. Ferguson, formerly of Bristol, now of New York; Isaac H. Adams, Lynchburg; and Sol S. Bloomberg, George W. Poe and Major Sol Cutchins, of Richmond.

A letter of regret was received from Past Grand High Priest Stanley H. Martin of Lynchburg, who is an officer with the National Guard in Texas. The feature of the evening was the introduction by Dr. Joseph W. Eggleston, of a past grand high priest of Maine, Thomas H. Bodge, of Augusta, the representative of the Grand Chapter of Virginia in the State of Maine, who made an excellent address, telling of his desire always to visit Virginia. He was more than pleased with the reception accorded him.

Among the distinguished visiting Masons at the opening session are Judge R. T. W. Duke and C. W. Rogers, of Charlottesville, and Nelson Williams, past grand high priest of Ohio.

THEY WIN AGAIN.

As Halloween approaches and incidentally the "great drought," the question has been asked if the last night of licensed drinking may not be rather wild in Alexandria unless the police are fully prepared to cope with the situation? It would seem that the young people would do well to keep off the streets as much as possible that night, and parents should bear in mind Gypsy Smith's observation about never having seen as many small children on the streets alone late at night in any other town. On that night, of all nights, parents should see that their young ones are safely housed before dark. It will be hard on the merrymakers, but "an ounce of prevention" may prove better than the pound of cure at that time. If the history of other dry towns is repeated here, the street scenes may not be proper sights for the younger generation to behold.

Miss Nellie Wattles, of Washington, is the guest today of her mother, Mrs. Henry Starr Wattles, at her home in Prince street.

NO CATHOLICS ON JURY.

Trial of Texas Bank Cashier, Accused of Killing Anti-Catholic Lecturer, Begins.

Galveston, Texas, Oct. 25— The jury in the case of John Copeland, bank cashier of Marshall, Texas, charged with murder in connection with the killing of William Black, an anti-Catholic lecturer, in that city, on February 3, 1915, was completed yesterday. All the jurors are Protestants save two, who are Jews.

All took oath they would have no prejudice against Copeland if he were a Catholic and that they would give him the sort of trial that they would give to any other American citizen.

Judge Clay Stone Briggs, issued an order that the testimony was not to be published by papers in Galveston county, or in other papers sent into the county. The public will be admitted to all sessions.

Judge Briggs explained that publication of the testimony would make almost impossible the selection of a jury at the impending trials of George Ryan and George Ticer, two other Marshall citizens charged with participation in the killing of Black.

The Judge's orders were based on a paragraph in the Texas statutes relating to libel. Under this, he said, testimony to be adduced would be privileged matter.

Sadie Black, the girl adopted by Black in Arkansas, and taken with him in his travels, who was one of the chief witnesses at the examining trial, is reported to be missing.

Joseph Webb was killed by coming in contact with a live wire at the woolen mills in Spray, N. C., Monday.

CANCER DUE TO RICH FOOD.

Surgeons at Congress Show Wisdom of Simple Life.

Philadelphia, Oct 25.—Clinics held in many hospitals yesterday attended by hundreds of members of the Clinical Congress of Surgeons of North America, in session here, were arguments for the simple life. It was the consensus of opinion among the surgeons that high living is responsible for more operations than is the life led by poor persons. The rich are more subject to cancer of the stomach than others, it was stated.

Dr. M. E. Rehfuss, during a clinic at one of the hospitals demonstrated some of the theories held by diagnosticians generally that cancer results from too much protein, the chief element in meats and some rich foods. Specialists at other clinics, demonstrating on vital organs, suggested that the poor would be healthier as a class than the rich were it not for tuberculosis.

PROFESSOR STARTS RIOT

Instructor at Dickinson Objects to Cracked Plate at Dinner and Floors Two Men.

Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 25—Frantic with rage because a cracked plate was given him at the dining table at Conway Hall, where he lives with his mother and daughter, Prof. G. Lafayette Cram, assistant instructor in French and German at Dickinson College, created a riot yesterday. He was overpowered by football men after he had laid out two Conway Hall officials.

Professor Cram is a new instructor here. He came to Carlisle one month ago from Columbia University. He boarded at Conway Hall, and frequently protested against having any but the best of china at his place. When a plate of old design was placed before him today he hurled it across the hall smashing it to bits against a radiator.

Charles H. Reitz, Mount Carmel, Pa., who has charge of the dining hall, went to remonstrate with the German professor and was struck on the jaw. Foster Brenneman, of Carlisle, another instructor, running to the assistance of Reitz, was met by a kick which laid him on the floor.

Joe Rutstein, Portage, Pa., star fullback of the Conway team, went to Cram's assistance and held the irate professor from behind. Cram used his feet on the burly back's shin until the latter was forced to knock him down.

The Dickinson faculty will act on the matter at once. Cram is a graduate of Toronto University and took a master's degree at Columbia, He is about 45 years old.

PATRONS' DAY PROGRAM

Parents of Scholars and Friends of Public Schools Invited to Witness Exercises Tomorrow.

Tomorrow will be Patrons' Day in the public schools of Alexandria, and Superintendent W. H. Sweeney has mapped out an interesting program of exercises, which he desires parents, guardians and friends of the public schools to witness.

There will be a fire drill at Lee School Building, at 10 a. m,

This feature will be demonstrated at the High School Building one hour later, (at 11 o'clock).

Similar exercises will take place at Washington School Building at 2 o'clock, p. m.

Patrons' Day is an interesting annual event in the Alexandria public schools. It is encouraging to the members of the School Board, Superintendent, teachers and scholars to see as many of their friends as possible on these occasions, and it is hoped many will find it convenient to be on hand. They will doubtless be able to attend at least one of the drills, while it is hoped they will be there for the three.

The public schools are now in a flourishing condition, and those having them in charge are doing everything possible to increase their usefulness, and it will be pleasant to all concerned to realize that their labors are understood and appreciated.

"JOE, THE TURK."

To Speak at Salvation Army Hall in Alexandria Tonight.

But few of the thousands engaged in the Salvation Army work have met with the experiences which have been the lot of "Joe, the Turk," whose protrait appears above and who is to speak in the Salvation Army Hall, in Alexandria this evening. Notwithstanding the fact that in some cities he has been arrested for holding street meetings, that has not prevented him from going ahead with the work which he takes great interest in. He has been arrested in all some 52 times.

He is a native of Constantinople, and since coming to this country has made two trips to Turkey, with the hope of establishing a branch of the army there, but without success — further than to be arrested by the Turkish authorities in both instances.

He will relate many of his experiences this evening, which are said to be of thrilling interest. He speaks and sings in nine different languages.

TRAGEDY CLOSES CAREER

One-Time Sensational Bareback Rider in Circuses is Killed by Street Car.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 25—Tragedy yesterday closed the career of Mrs. Pearl Jones, who in her younger days, as Katie Lapearl, was a sensational bareback rider in the leading circuses. She was struck and killed by a street car. She was about 50 years old, and was married here three years ago.

Rev. Father Francis Gavisk was her guardian, and it is understood that she still possessed some money although she and her husband lived frugally in a single room.Her husband said he knew little of her relatives, but that a brother lives in New Orleans, where he once served as chief of police.

BURNING OF "HAYFIELD"

Second Historic Virginia Mansion Near This City Destroyed by Fire During Past Ten Days

The burning of "Hayfield," about seven miles south of Alexandria, on the Telegraph Road, was announced in yesterday's Gazette. The substantial facts were given, and but little can be added to the first account.

Less than two weeks ago "Burgundy," in sight of Alexandria, was destroyed by fire. While not as aged as "Hayfield," it was equally well known throughout this section of country. A history of this mansion was published in the Gazette at the time and the burning of two old landmarks near Alexandria in so short a time has naturally brought forth many regrets.

It is supposed sparks from a chimney set fire to the "Hayfield" mansion about noon yesterday. Mr. J. M. Duncan's family were unaware that their home was burning until apprised of the fact by neighbors. Every effort was made in order to check the flames, but the supply of water available was small and it was soon seen that the destruction of the old mansion was inevitable. A telephone message was sent to this city and the new motor chemical engine started towards the scene, but by the time it arrived the flames were beyond control, and after burning several hours nothing but the walls remained of old "Hayfield" mansion.

Chief Engineer Gronau, Captain J. E. Howell, of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company and a few volunteer firemen accompanied the truck to "Hayfield."

The furniture on the first floor of the building was removed, but that in the other rooms was a prey to the flames. There was no insurance on the contents of the house, and the building was but partially insured. The loss, it is believed, will approximate $30,000. There were twenty-six rooms in the house.

GERMANY AND NORWAY

Sweden Said to Be Gravitating Toward Entente

London, Oct. 25—German submarines are waging a peristent war on Norwegian shipping.

The Norwegian Mercantile Shipping Gazette says that five German submarines have established a regular blockade of the Norwegian south coast.

Reuters Stavanger correspondent says the Norwegian bark Athenian, which has arrived at Egersund, reports that on Sunday she saw four Norwegian steamers set on fire by a German submarine. The Athenian escaped to Egersund and does not dare to put to sea again, says the correspondent.

Lloyds announced that the Norwegian steamer Snestad, 2,349 tons, has been sunk. The crew was saved.

The Norwegian steamers Sesundo and Gronhaug have been sunk, says a Reuter dispatch from Christiania. The Gronhaug's crew was rescued. The Norwegian steamer Edam, the dispatch adds, has been seized and taken to Emden, Germany.

Lloyds shipping agency reports that the Norwegian bark Gunn has been burned by the Germans and the crew landed.

Amsterdam, Oct. 25—A crisis has arisen between Germany and Norway, the climax of which, it is feared in some quarters in Germany, may lead to a diplomatic break between the two countries. At the same time there are symptoms of a gradual tendency on the part of Sweden toward the entente allies, symptoms which are interpreted here as foreshadowing substantial agreements, and possibly an alliance.

The continuance of "friendly relations" between Germany and Norway depends upon the latter government's answer to Berlin's note demanding recession from the stand taken regarding the treatment of German submarines in open Norwegian waters.

LAST WEEK OF CAMPAIGN

Two weeks from today the result of the Presidential election of 1916 will be known. As we near election day, many who had from the first prophesied a walk-over for Charles E. Hughes are revising their forecasts. They now admit that the race will be close, the winner probably winning by a nose. Offers to bet five to one, eight to ten, etc., upon the success of the republican candidate are no longer heard. In fact, betting on even money now is not so much in evidence.

Indications today show that the friends of Woodrow Wilson were right from the first. There is always more or less braggadocia at the beginning of campaigns. Make-believe bets are heard on every side, and straw votes are taken of indications which way the country is going. It is the same old story—the tailors of Tooley street are not the people of England.

The chief feature of the Presidential election betting yesterday in Wall street, was the receipt of messages from many parts of the country inquiring as to the odds and offering to make wagers. In almost all instances the prospective betters were anxious to back President Wilson.

All the important wagers on the curb were made at even money.

Some curb commissioners who have been hung up with Hughes bets at as high as 2 to 1 sought to stem the Wilson tide by quoting odds of 10 to 9 on Hughes and 8 to 10 on Wilson. Such odds, however, were entirely artificial and actual betting was only on an even money basis. The preponderance of Wilson money caused a belief that the President will soon be an odds-on favorite.

With the approach of the campaign's end, the Republicans have failed to "find a flaw in Woodrow Wilson's armor," declared Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, in an address at Syracuse, N. Y., last night.

When Charles E. Hughes was nominated, he said, he felt a bit nervous as to the outcome, because he felt that if there had been any great mistakes by the administration, Mr. Hughes would reveal them.

"He was the Republicans' strongest man, and he has failed," the secretary said.

Governor Tom C. Rye, of Tennessee, candidate for re-election, addressed an audience of 1,000 people at Bristol, Va., last night. He insisted that Hughes is a candidate without an issue and declared that the American people already have cast the die for the re-election of Wilson.

THE MARTIAL "TEDDY."

Charles E. Hughes, should involuntarily exclaim, "Lord, deliver me from my friends!" Former President Roosevelt may be likened to the bear that attempted to keep flies off the man's face. The former President is repeating what he said when he was in the White House —he wants universal military training.

While Mr. Roosevelt is giving vent to militarism he is supposed to be advocating the election of Mr. Hughes as President. The former made himself heard in Denver last night, where he made pleas for universal military training and criticism of President Wilson. Colonel Roosevelt advocated repeal of the Hay Military bill and the restoration of the militia to its former status.

Frederick C. Hibbard, the distinguished architect and sculptor of Chicago, who designed the famous memorial on the Shiloh battlefield, and who is the designer of the Confederate Monument to be erected at Winchester, has selected the site for the monument in Winchester, and the monument commission plans to hold the unveiling ceremonies on November

"It Pays to Advertise."

Editor Gazette:

In an article in yesterday's Gazette, attention was called to the fact that many Alexandrians buy in Washington and do not patronize Alexandria merchants. This is very true. There are many Alexandrians who earn their living in Washington and are in that city six days a week. Some of these people have opportunity of buying all they want and anything they want in Washington.

The slogan "It pays to Adevertise" is a true one. If it is not, why do Washington merchants advertise?

In looking over yesterday's Gazette, advertisements of some of Washington's best known department stores were found, and but comparatively few advertisements of Alexandria merchants. There are merchants in this city who never advertise in a newspaper but who wait for their trade to come to them. It is the principle of "out of sight, out of mind," for the majority of people partronize those merchants who keep their names and the goods which they handle "constantly" before the public by advertising. Advertising once in a great while does but little good for people see it once or twice and forget all about it. But when they see the same firm's advertisement nearly every day, they cannot forget it.

There are some of Alexandria's merchants who advertise all the the time, but there are others who do not. These last should not, in all fairness, expect to compete with our own merchants and those of Washington who advertise in our own city paper. Further more, by advertising they would not only help themselves but would help the "Gazette", the only newspaper in Alexandria, a city which with its suburbs comprises about twenty thousand people. One woman, who was intimately acquainted with Poschl, said he once remarked to her: "I have committed the unforgivable sin, and if it wasn't so inhuman I'd crawl under a burning brush-pile to get that sin off my mind."

VIRGINIA NEWS

All Around the Old Dominion State.

The third annual session of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Virginia Methodist Episcopal Conference opened yesterday morning at Main Street Methodist Church, Danville, and will last until Friday. Mrs. Lee Britt, of Suffolk, president of the society, delivered her message and reported healthy progress along all lines. The society raised $30,808.61 last years and spent practically all of it. The membership in the conference is 14,563 and by the end of the year it is hoped to bring it to 15,000. The 114 delegates attending the conference heard last night Nellie Bennet and Elizabeth Lamb, both of Brazil, tell of their missionary work.

Judge Richard H. Cardwell, president of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, yesterday sent to Governor Stuart his resignation, to take effect on November 16. The resignation was accepted and Governor Stuart appointed Judge R. R. Prentis, chairman of the State Corporation Commission, to fill the vacancy and announced that he would appoint Christopher B. Garnett, the present executive assistant to the State Tax Board, as successor to Judge Prentis on the State Corporation Commission. The State Tax Board will fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Garnett's elevation. Judge Cardwell's resignation has been long anticipated.

The Synod of Virginia was opened last night at the Presbyterian Church in Lexington, with a sermon by the Rev. Dr. W. W. Moore, president of the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, in the absence of Dr. James Graham, the retiring moderator, who was compelled to return to his mission work in China. The business session of the synod began today, and the meetings will continue through Friday. The Rev. J. M. Montgomery, assistant pastor of the Lexington church, was ordained yesterday by the Lexington Presbyter which convened for that purpose.

The seventy-first convention of the Southern Conference of the Synod of Virginia was opened last night in Muhlenberg Lutheran Church in Harrisonburg with the conference sermon by the Rev. J. W. Shuey, of Lexington, the retiring president. Twenty-five delegates, clerical and lay, were present, representing 15 pastorates and 30 congregations, with 4,000 communicants. The upper valley counties, with parishes in Lynchburg, Richmond, Newport News, and Norfolk, are embraced in the conference.

Miss Edith Sheperd, 18 years old, daughter of R. H. Shepherd, a Lynchburg merchant, was assaulted Sunday night near her home by an unknown negro. The assailant embraced her and endeavored to close her mouth with his hand, but she was able to scream and the black fled. A neighbor, attracted by the cries, fired several shots at the negro, who escaped.

No action toward the restoration of dividends was taken at the annual meeting of stock holders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway yesterday in Richmond. All members of the board of directors were re-elected.

Thornton Edwards, aged 62 years, a negro, was found murdered near the Forest Turnpike, several miles west of Lynchburg, on Sunday morning. The indications are that the negro attempted to run when held up for purposes of robbery. A bullet struck him in the back and was taken out of his left chest. When found, the negro had 50 cents in his mouth and 30 cents in one of his hands. Two white men, who claimed to have heard the shooting, say they were held up shortly afterwards by a negro, who ran from the direction of the shots were fired.

William Allen, cousin of the Allen boys, involved in the Hillsville Courthouse slaughter, yesterday seriously slashed Patrick Sheehan, of New York, said to be a relative of Brooklyn's Democratic boss, at Mont-Alto, Pa. Sheehan's face was laid open with the knife for more than seven inches. He was also slashed across the abdomen, and it is feared this gash may result in his death. Despite his wounds, Sheehan overpowered his assailant by beating him over the head with a shoe. Both were arrested and taken to Chambersburg, Pa., in a hearse, pressed into service as a police patrol.

All Macedonian Jews of the military classes of 1913, 1914 and 1915 have been ordered to report to the colors of the Greek revolutionary government within three days. A proclamation issued today said that the reservists who failed to report would be treated as deserters.
